ONE OF WILCOX'S LECTURES.

In the Police Court this morning, David Makana, a long native husband was arraigned for beating his wife. The wife, a dainty, slight creature, was called to the bar to make her recommendations.

"Give him one of your lectures, Judge," she said.

"This is a serious offense," said the Court, beaming upon the forgiving wife, "an offense almost as bad as McCarthy's offense. Your husband is big and you are little and a lecture of mine is not very serious punishment. Besides the Legislature has not said that my lectures are legal modes of punishment. However, the Court will hear your prayer."

The prisoner, with a hang dog air then faced a two-minute speech from the bench and went his way.
